

The Continuum

Built for more than one way of being.

₦180,000 price guide

THE IDEA

Layered architecture: short, long and fluid working together. The cropped jacket gives definition, the long waistcoat creates a vertical line, and wide trousers bring movement.

THE PIECES

Cropped collarless jacket · Long split-panel waistcoat · Fluid wide trousers

FABRIC DIRECTION

Medium-weight suiting for the outer layers; a compatible fluid trouser cloth.

WHERE TO WEAR IT

Modest work dressing, leadership events, travel wardrobes.

STYLE & FIT

Wear all three pieces for presence, or separate the long waistcoat from the jacket. Check layer clearance, arm movement and the longest hem against your height.
